Rights Of Interested Parties

10. You have the right to submit to the IRS, at the above address, either individually or jointly with other interested parties, your comments as to whether this plan meets the qualification requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

You may instead, individually or jointly with other interested parties, request the Department of Labor to submit, on your behalf, comments to the IRS regarding qualification of the plan. If the Department declines to comment on all or some of the matters you raise, you may, individually, or jointly if your request was made to the Department jointly, submit your comments on these matters directly to the IRS.

Requests For Comments By The Department Of Labor

11. The Department of Labor may not comment on behalf of interested parties unless requested to do so by the lesser of 10 employees or 10 percent of the employees who qualify as interested parties. The number of persons needed for the Department to comment with respect to this plan is 10 percent of the employees who qualify as interested parties. If you request the Department to comment, your request must be in writing and must specify the matters upon which comments are requested, and must also include:

- (1) the information contained in items 2 through 5 of this Notice; and
- (2) the number of persons needed for the Department to comment. A request to the Department to comment should be addressed as follows:

Deputy Assistant Secretary
Employee Benefits Security Administration
ATTN: 3001 Comment Request
U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20210

Comments To The Internal Revenue Service

12. Comments submitted by you to the IRS must be in writing and received by it by Monday, June 9, 2008. However, if there are matters that you request the Department of Labor to comment upon on your behalf, and the Department declines, you may submit comments on these matters to the IRS to be received by it within 15 days from the time the Department notifies you that it will not comment on a particular matter, or by June 9, 2008, whichever is later, but not after June 9, 2008. A request to the Department to comment on your behalf must be received by it by June 9, 2008 if you wish to preserve your right to comment on a matter upon which the Department declines to comment, or by June 9, 2008 if you wish to waive that right.
